

Parenting Today in Victoria

Launching the study
You're invited

Find out what parents are thinking, feeling and doing about parenting today

Survey snapshot

91%

said they had CONFIDENCE in themselves
as a parent

28%

felt they were sometimes TOO CRITICAL of their children

We would love to share these findings with you at our Parenting Today in Victoria breakfast launch and panel discussion – to be opened by The Hon. Jenny Mikakos MP, Minister for Families and Children, Minister for Youth Affairs and Minister for Early Childhood Education and chaired by Parenting Research Centre Board Chair Mr Tass Mousaferiadis.

PRESENTERS

Warren Cann

CEO, Parenting Research Centre

Dr Catherine Wade

Principal Research Specialist,
Parenting Research Centre

They will be joined by our panel members to discuss the importance of the survey results for policy and for children.

PANEL MEMBERS

Professor Jane Fisher

Director, Jean Hailes Research Unit

Clinical Professor David Bennett

Department of Adolescent Medicine at the Children's Hospital at Westmead

Ms Kim Little

Assistant Deputy Secretary, Early Childhood Portfolio, Department of Education and Training

WHEN

7.15 am – 9.30 am
28 November 2017

WHERE

The Cube, ACMI,
Federation Square, Melbourne

RSVP NOW

Please send your reply to Maria Battaglia
E: mbattaglia@parentingrc.org.au T: (03) 8660 3589

Reply by Friday 17 November 2017

Light breakfast provided. Please let us know if you have special dietary needs.